March 2, 2010 - Jupiter Lanes
3:00pm - 5:00pm

As the world's greatest golfers go to work week in and week out, the PGA TOUR Wives Association makes a significant impact on the communities in which they visit. Our objective: To provide support for needy children and their families through a variety of volunteer and fundraising activities conducted during PGA TOUR events.

Whether it's working side-by-side with Habitat for Humanity building houses in New Orleans, Milwaukee and Hilton Head, hosting a "Taste of the TOUR" fundraiser in Connecticut, or collecting food to benefit the Greater Boston Food Bank during a National food drive to feed those in need, the Association's commitment to giving back leaves an impression long after the tournaments are over.

On March 2nd, we are rolling out a new fundraising event! This time, the golf shoes come off and the bowling shoes go on as the TOUR Wives team up with their husbands in a friendly bowling competition for charity, hosted by our friends at The Honda Classic.

We invite you to participate in this very special event and help the PGA TOUR Wives Association give back to many deserving charities in South Florida and around the country.

Giving Time to Others. Giving Back to Communities. Giving Through Golf.
